Litigants in Person Service

Help for Litigants in Person

Are you involved in a court case concerning a claim for money? Are you representing yourself?

The University of Law in Liverpool is offering a free service giving Litigants procedural advice and guidance.

University of Law students are training to qualify as Solicitors or Barristers and are offering appointments, conducted under the supervision of a Solicitor, where you can get the answers to:

- The stages of the court procedure and the current position of your case
- What you need to do to prepare your case and in preparation for any court hearing;
- What you can expect in court and court terminology.

At the end of your appointment, you will also be offered an information booklet.

For more information on our LiP Service or to book an appointment please email: lp-lac@law.ac.uk or leave a voicemail on our answering service by calling: 01483 405510.

Please state you would like a Litigant in person appointment, provide your name, contact information and the date of any hearing/Court deadline.
